

This is a detailed aerial map of a residential area in Warsaw, Poland. The map features several streets: 'Zacisze' running diagonally from the top left, 'Długa' running horizontally across the middle, and 'Warszawska' running diagonally from the bottom right. Building footprints are outlined in red, with some labeled with numbers in blue boxes (1, 2, 4, 8, 36). The map includes cadastral data, with labels like 'MPZP 012' and 'MPZP 010' in blue. Elevation points are marked with numbers like 106.75, 106.85, and 106.77. The map is overlaid with a grid of blue lines, likely representing property boundaries or cadastral plots. The background is a grayscale aerial photograph showing the texture of the ground and buildings.
